The mission of Dallas International University, as an institute of higher education, is to provide education and research opportunities leading to degrees in applied linguistics, culture studies, and development of languages.

We are seeking applicants who are committed to our mission and will subscribe in good faith to the school's doctrinal statement. The DIU Board requires that regular faculty and staff of DIU adhere to the following fundamental beliefs. Do you give assent to the following doctrinal statement?

1. God is the eternal creator of all things, and exists in three fully divine Persons: the Father, the Son Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit.
2. Jesus Christ is God incarnate being fully human and fully divine.
3. The Bible is God's inspired and authoritative word.
4. Humanity is fallen, is morally depraved and is in need of regeneration.
5. Atonement is only through the substitutionary death of Christ.
6. Justification is by faith alone.
7. The Holy Spirit's power is demonstrated in and through Christians.
8. The body will be resurrected, both in the case of the just and of the unjust.
9. Humanity's final state is the eternal life of the saved, and the eternal punishment of the lost.

Yes No

Dallas International University also has a Moral Lapse policy, which describes standards of conduct expected of those who serve DIU, and provides for discipline, including possible dismissal, for those who violate the policy. The policy reads as follows:

Board members, officers of the Board, employees, staff and faculty members are to be of high moral character whose conduct is consistent with the standards of Scripture. This includes, but is not limited to, abstaining from premarital, extramarital, and homosexual forms of sexual conduct, child or spousal abuse, and from advocating such behavior. If any such individual fails to abide by this standard, DIU shall follow the procedures as outlined under Dallas Int'l Discipline and Appeal Procedures.

Do you accept the responsibilities of this policy?
